

THE YORK

The Extraordinary Sporadic Newsletter of

Kentucky's Corps of Longriflemen

Spring Rendezvous

May, 4, 2013

Minutes – Spring Rendezvous – Morehead, KY

Meeting called to order by President Wayne Estes.

There was a pledge of allegiance to the flag and a recognition and a moment of silence for 2 of our members that passed away since the last rendezvous, Bob Kelly and Paul Thompson.

New Member applicant William Moore and other guests were recognized.

Minutes of the Fall 2012 were read and approved.

Treasurer's Report was given and approved.

A team of 6 Corps members went up to Altoona, PA on April 27th and challenged 18 PA shooters at their Interstate Shoot. Being good guests their top 5 bested our top 5 868 to 816.

OLD BUSINESS:

Targets are getting short, Dan Bruan was asked to get 1000 each big bull and small bull targets.

NEW BUSINESS:

Case XX knives for the 51st Interstate shoot were discussed. It was decided to order 100 Trapper pattern knives with brown handles for the October shoot.

Scopes at the interstate shoot were discussed and will not be used out in the firing line area again this year.

The current Brd. Of Directors is as follows: Terms expiring 2013 Danny Updike, AB Conley, Curtis Combs
Terms expiring 2014 Sterling Martin, Curtis Geoghegan, Kevin Steele
Terms expiring 2015 Wayne Jenkins, Harry Marsh, Alan Woeste

There was no report from any of the committees.

KY's Corps Buckle #6 belonging to Bob Filson was auctioned off for $160 to Scott Musick.
50th Interstate Case XX Trapper Knife #00 was auctioned off for $75 to Jesse Evans.
A hand painted turkey feather was auctioned off for $50.

A motion to adjourn was made by Charlie Wallingford. Meeting adjourned.

Submitted by Carl L. King – Secretary/Treasurer – October 23, 2013